A full-time Lecturer in Japanese was hired in 2013-14. The Lecturer position in German is now base-funded. A Visiting Assistant Professor position was converted to a Visiting Lecturer this Spring 2016. The search for a TT position in Chinese Studies has successfully concluded. A search is underway (AY 2016-17) to fill the vacant TT position in Intercultural Communication. We anticipate three new TT vacancies between 2016 and 2018.
Develop a timeline and a documented commitment to improve and expand department space, including the move of the IMC to the Library	x	x	x	In December 2015, the department moved to a newly renovated space on the fourth floor of FA. A new active learning classroom/conference room is included within that space and is already fully utilized.
Clarify the department's goals and philosophy as they relate to the teaching of culture and development of intercultural knowledge and awareness in the orientations and workshops for GAs and Adjuncts	x			In addition to regular workshops, all orientations now include presentations on the department's goals and philosophy on the teaching of intercultural communicative competence. Syllabi include a statement on the teaching of culture and the development of intercultural knowledge and awareness. The new MLLI Teaching Circle is a forum on topics related to language and culture teaching and learning.

Develop comprehensive, written and accessible governance documents	x	x		We revised our By-Laws, Merit Policy, Faculty mentoring Policy, Faculty Workload Policy, and Policy on Special Sessions. All are now posted in Box and on our newly redesigned website.
Review the department's current organization and administrative structure and develop descriptions of roles and responsibilities	x			This is now established, and is reflected in the new By-Laws and Workload Policy.
Improve communication within the department, especially with part-time faculty, and better integrate part-time faculty into department activities	x			Documents such as the Minutes of faculty meetings are now available to adjunct faculty. They are invited to language area meetings. There is an annual reception for them. They are also invited to the various departmental workshops on language teaching and to the Teaching Circle. There is now an adjunct suite in our new departmental space, with its own copier, desktops, new furniture, wireless access and two meeting rooms.
Improve post-graduate and career counseling for majors	x			Collaboration with the Career Center has been strengthened. We continue to communicate with the Shriver Center regarding internships. We plan to involve more of our alumni/ae in career counseling for current majors.
