CURRENT CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

A study of a major movement, theme, or figure in the development of European philosophy since Kant. Possible topics include: Kant and Neo-Kantianism, the development of post-Kantian Idealism, Hegel, Phenomenology, Marx and Marxism, Continental Aesthetics, Existentialism, the Frankfurt School, French post-structuralism. This course is repeatable up to 6 credits or 2 attempts.

PROPOSED CATALOG DESCRIPTION (no longer than 75 words): leave blank if no changes are being proposed to the catalog description. NOTE: information about prerequisites should NOT appear in the catalog description.)

RATIONALE FOR CHANGE:

1. New description differs only in clarifying that the course is repeatable only with different topics. Also, possible topics needn't be included in course description since they are included elsewhere in the catalog description.
2. Change in Prerequisites: we are altering the prerequisites for all of our 400 level courses in this way in order to encourage enrollment but still require some philosophy background.
3. Change in Recommended preparations: The proposed change would capture the key point that PHIL 420 is at a higher level than 300 level courses, and so we are recommending that students have taken at least one 300 level course before taking PHIL 420. And PHIL 322 is an especially useful preparation for PHIL 420.
