Hi Susan,

We have discussed this proposed curriculum change from HAPP, and we do not object. We note that both the course they are substituting in, PUBL 623, and the course they are substituting it for, PUBL 603, are both required for our MPP degree. If HAPP prefers that PUBL 623 be taken first, that is fine with us.

Thank you,

Tim Brennan

HAPP is revising their undergrad curriculum for BA/MPP students. We saw one version of this, but now we are seeing maybe the final version which substitutes the undergrad budgeting requirement for our budgeting class.

If we are in agreement with this, they are asking us to send a memo to the undergraduate council expressing our endorsement of the HAPP/PUBL curriculum for the BA/MPP students.

Sally

RE: Proposed Changes in BA/MPP Public Policy-HAPP

I have reviewed the changes proposed by UMBC's Anthropology, Sociology, and Health Administration and Policy Program. I have no objections to these changes and they meet with my approval. Please let me know if I can address any further issues you may have on the requested changes.
