CURRENT CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

This course is a continuation of ANTH 401H. This course is repeatable.

PROPOSED CATALOG DESCRIPTION (Approximately 75 words in length. Please use full sentences): leave blank if no changes are being proposed to the catalog description. NOTE: information about prerequisites should NOT appear in the catalog description.)

This course is the second in a two-course individual study sequence, which begins with ANTH 491H. Together, these courses lead towards fulfilling the requirements of the departmental Honors Program in Anthropology. During this sequence, the student completes an original research project leading to an Honors Thesis under the supervision of two full-time faculty members in the department who serve as the Honors Committee.

RATIONALE FOR CHANGE:

Course Number: We recently became aware that this course number is the same number (ANTH 402H) as one cross-listed course with MLL as Ethnography of Communication. We are therefore asking to change this course number.

Course Title: We are proposing the update in order to clarify that this is a two-part sequence.

Prerequisites: We are raising the grade required in the first part of the two-course sequence to a B to ensure that students are prepared to continue this independent research project.

Grading Method: We are not sure what grading methods were allowed before, but this should only be Regular Grading (A-F) since this course would only be used to meet the requirement for the departmental Honors Program.

Course Description: We are updating the course description to provide more information about this course.

ANTH 401H and 402H -- approval?

I looked. We're ok with both of these courses. You don't need to write the bit about fulfilling Honors requirements in the course description because our students know that departmental honors courses count toward their certificate.

Can this be our email if approval or do you need a more official one?

Hey, I'm in meetings until 3:30 so can't look until then. But that can be the first thing I do when I get back.

Hi, Jodi -- I just realized yesterday that TODAY is the last day to get forms in to UGC to be approved for the fall. The course we need to update is an "H" course, so I wanted to see if you could...

- 1) look at these to make sure you are okay with these changes, considering that they are "H" designated courses.
- 2) look specifically at the note I have added to the description, saying:
 Note: this course may be used towards to Honors College requirements.
Is this correct? Is it necessary?
- 3) If this is all okay, could you send me an email back saying you support these changes?

If you can't get to this by today, I will go ahead and submit these and then update them as necessary, but at least they will be in the queue!

Thank you,
Bambi
